Two villains appeared.

Are you kidding me? Who did it?

I am unsure of who it is, however, they were obnoxious enough to take a selfie

I found the person who took it oh! Great! Then we can just steal it from them!
Hmm, let's sit here
TAP...
well, come with me! I have the potion..
But it seems they conducted a background investigation on you, first.
investigations? what kind?
a profile check
But I blocked it right away, so they should only have managed to get one piece of information...
..Bet you like ice-cream.
PRESS..
And it seems they'll be hosting an ice cream party at this location tomorrow.
POP!
Yummy Delicious Ice Cream Party
No! This is such an obvious trap.

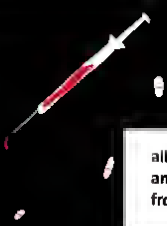
Humans attempted body modification with a variety of medications and technology



all of the experiments failed and there was nothing gained from it however, only young children showed the best results

yet, the side effects were so severe, it is said that a great number of children died

Despite that, the number of experiments conducted on children increased, and it progressively became a bigger more serious problem....

eventually they put a ban on human experiments....

and for a long while they stopped

however, it is said that there were still experiments being conducted in the shadows well, let us end the story here and get onto the main subject of our discussion.

what main subject?

tsubu~
DUP
!!

This is!!
This is Doctor Fing's potion.
You wanted this, no?
That's also why you killed him.
Ah, it's futile trying to kick out of this one. Since your actions have been caught by the surveillance cameras.

Did I look good on screen?

ehem.
Why don't we do a trade?
your assistant ..

Fing's...
he's a modified child, correct?
You can't hack a professional like me.

how did you do it?
My word! He's in such good condition..
Tell me how you did it...!!

I'll give you anything...!

To think there would be a perfectly modified child..
TREMBLE

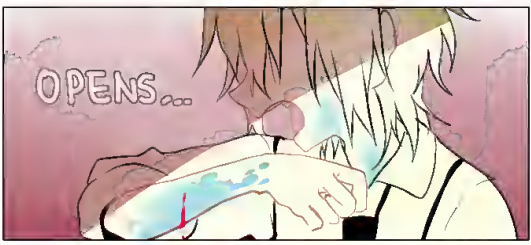
Jeez* You should have told us that earlier! You guys ALWAYS seem to tell us warnings after it's too late!*

what did you say?

Anyways, if you don't want to see your assistant dying, you better start spewing out the information.



CHOMP...!

what the... did he lose his mind after being poisoned?

what are you...

He's being detoxified...?!

Ufufu, it seems you don't know that poison won't work on him.

Seiru is equivalent to a walking talking pharmacy.

He can create drugs and cures from within his body..

he can create quite potent poisons as well.

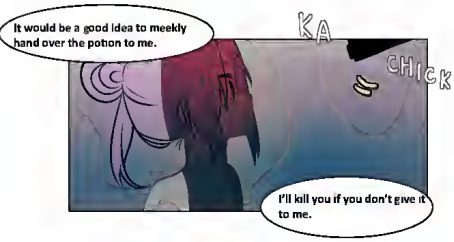
I told Save beforehand not to kill her, just in case.
APPEARS-..

It's only a simple paralyzer, so don't sweat it~
But I'm in a really bad mood right now~
I couldn't even watch pororong today~



It would be a good idea to meekly hand over the potion to me.
KA
CHICK
I'll kill you if you don't give it to me.

If you give it, then I'll just end it with a couple shots to the head.
You're still going to kill me, you dipsh*t
